Squad Will Be in Tip-Top Shape When Holidays Are Over.

Are Over.

Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.

Charlottesville, Va., December 4—
Basketball practice continues each day at the University of Virginia under the coaching of Trainer Lannigan, and a determined effort is being made to get the squad in shape for the opening of the schedule immediately after the Christmas holidays.

Each year has seen the virierality teams in basketball growing stronger and stronger, until the General Athielic Aswociation has decided that this sport is to be recognized as an important factor in the upholding of Virginia's excellent record for athletics as well as scholastic ability.

With practically all of last year's five as a nucleus and many new play-res, Coach Lannigan predicts that this year's team will be a crack one. Kearns, who did some stellar work last season at guard, is out again, and he is doing even better than last year. Andy Christian, brother of Archer Christian, brother of Archer Christian, brother of Archer Christian, who met such an untimely death in the Georgelown-Virginia football game a little more than a year ago, is showing up well, and the new men attracting attention are Gill, from Alabama, and Betz, who was the star of the Hampton Y. M. C. A.

Three football men are candidates for the team—Cecil, or last year's five; Dulaney and Driver. The last named comes with quite a reputation, having captained the William and Mary quint last season. During the football season he showed enough headwork and speed to assure his being an asset to the basketball team. Cecil last year played an excellent game, and was the mainstay of the team. His additional experience will make him very valuable. Spratt is exhibiting old-time form, and it looks as if he will hold his old position. Ex-Captain Ashby has gone to a Richmond hospital to undergo an operation.

CHRISTY LEADS IN NATIONAL LEAGUE

New York, December 4.—Christy Mathewson, of New York, won more games than any other pitcher in the National League last season, according to the official records made public tonight. Three other twirlers, however-Philippi, or Pittsburg; Cote, of Chicago, and Crandall, of New York, and higher percentages of victories than he.

Mathewson won three-fourths of his contests, his victories numbering twenty-seven. Of the pitchers who had higher percentages of victories. Philippi is credited with fourteen victories, However, he took part only in two complete games. Cole has twenty and Crandall, seventeen.

Cole held his opponents to a lower average of runs per game than any of its rivals. Moore, of Philiadelphia, excelled in strike-outs, while Harmon of St. Louis, enjoys the distinction of issuing more passes and making more wild pitches than any one else.

The Brooklyn club led the National League in fielding, and these men excelled in their respective positions. Scanion, Brooklyn, among the positions that first basemen; McKechnie, of Pittsburg, among the second basemen; Zimmerman, of Chicago, among the third basemen; Doolan, of Philadelphia, among the second basemen; Zimmerman, of Chicago, among the third basemen; Doolan, of Philadelphia, among the second basemen; Zimmerman, of Chicago, among the third basemen; Doolan, of Philadelphia, among the second basemen; Zimmerman, of Chicago, among the third basemen; Doolan, of Philadelphia, among the help of the provided to a discussion of Chicago, among the outfielders.

Lubiu--Vaudeville.

Migh-Class Show at Hijou.
Henry B. Harris's production of Charles Kiein's great American play. The Lion and the Mouse, "will be the attraction at the Bijou Theatre all this week. The usual house prices will continue to prevail during this important engagement, which will mark an epoch in local theatrical history, as it is the first time that a "zilt-edged," high-priced New York attraction has been offered in this tity at a "popular" scale of prices. The production will be fully up to he standard heretofore maintained luring the life of this play in the igher priced playhouses, and the same ettention and details will be as elinitely marked as in Mr. Harris's ther productions, which, as every reatrogeer knows, is the standard for it American productions.

SIX-DAY GRIND

New York, December, 5.—State Senator "Big Tim" Sullivan fired the shot which started the eighteenth annual international six-day bicycle race in Madison Square Garden at one minute past midnight this morning.

George Wylle, of Syracuse, N. Y. paired with Lawrence, of San Francisco, on She so-called pony team, led the bunch at the end of the first mile His time was 2:37 2-5. One rider from each of the fifteen teams was picked to begin the long grind, and they quickly shot away.

At the end of the first hour all the teams had covered twenty-four miles four laps, with Wylle still riding in the lead.

With fifteen teams variously named and as variously paired competing, the eighteenth annual international six-day bloycle race started at Madison Square Garden at one minute past midnight. The entries follow:

Coast to coast team—George Cameron, New York City; Alfred Halstead San Francisco.

American-Swedish team—Frank Galyin, New York City; Norman Anderson, Conenhagen.

German-Holland team—Walter Rutt, Germany; Johann Stol, Holland.
